

FORD CUTS OUT FREE FINERY FOR WOMEN PACIFISTS

Those Who Ordered Gowns for Reception at The Hague Cannot Wear Them.

RULE SET FOR SAILING.

Those Who Prolong Their Stay in Europe Beyond Jan. 12 Must Pay Own Bills.

COPENHAGEN, Jan. 4.—Henry Ford will not pay for new gowns for certain of the women peace delegates who desired to make a brilliant showing at next week's conference at The Hague.

Gaston Plantiff, New York auto manager for Ford and now in charge of the enterprise to bring the boys out of the trenches, so informed several women who put the question to him to-day. They must wear the gowns they brought along on the Oscar II. or stay in their hotels.

Plantiff put his foot down on another suggestion to-day. Several delegates wanted to stay in Europe for a while longer and wanted to know if Ford would pay their way home any time they wanted to go. Plantiff declared that delegates who fall to sail with the main party on the liner Rotterdam Jan. 12 will pay their own fares home.

It was learned to-day that Mrs. Schwimmer, Hungarian peace advocate, was largely instrumental in obtaining permission for the party to cross Germany en route to The Hague. The newspapers agree that this fact has wrecked the last possibility that the Allies might look with favor on the peace expedition.

Stockholm is generally favored as the seat for the permanent peace tribunal Ford plans to convene. It is understood that Miss Jane Adams will be one of the members.

TESTIFY IN SUIT OF HOUSEWIVES' LEAGUE

Advertising Men Called as Witnesses at Hearing of Mrs. Yocum's Petition.

The fourth hearing on the petition of Mrs. Florence Yocum for the dissolution of the National Housewives' League was held to-day at the office of Deputy Attorney General Leonard J. Obermeier at No. 229 Broadway. Thirty or forty women crowded into the room. Their sympathy was about equally divided between Mrs. Yocum, Chairman of the New Jersey State organization, and Mrs. Julian Heath, the National President.

While the 800,000 members are supposed to pay 10 cents a year dues, this sum does not cover the postage on notices sent out, the officials say. Mrs. Heath says that she is thousands of dollars out of pocket through the League. It pays rent through restaurants and from the proceeds of advertising in the League paper.

Several representatives of firms that have advertised in the League's organ or had exhibits at the League's rooms testified regarding their contracts at to-day's hearing.

BEGIN ON SALTS AT FIRST SIGN OF KIDNEY PAIN

We eat too much meat, which clogs Kidneys, then the back hurts.

Says glass of Salts flushes Kidneys and ends Bladder irritation.

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys; they become overworked, get sluggish, ache and feel like lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy; the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. When the kidneys clog you must help them flush off the body's urinous waste or you'll be a real sick person shortly. At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from backache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad.

Eat less meat, drink lots of water; also get from any pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days, and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it is no longer a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Druggists here say they sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.—Adv.

WHAT IS YOUR FAMILY BUDGET?

"AT FIRST I WAS EMBARRASSED BY HAVING MY MONEY GIVE OUT BEFORE A NEW SUPPLY WAS DUE."

MRS. M. M.

When a Girl's Single and Making Her Own Way, With a Comfortable Salary, She Learns Too Late That "Two Can Live as Cheaply as One" Is a Fallacy and the Cause of Many Grievous Budgetary Sins.

By Marguerite Moores Marshall.

"I did not fully realize, at first, that one salary had to take the place of two; as, before my marriage, I had earned a fair salary and was accustomed to indulge in all the little luxuries, without thought of the result."

That is how a young matron in New Jersey explains the budgetary sins which she committed during the earlier part of her married life—the sums which she expended for such pleasant frivolities as candy, flowers and the theatre.

Her case is by no means an isolated one. For the rose-colored theory of the engaged, that "two can live as cheaply as one," many a bride finds she must substitute the solid gray fact that one salary is taking the place of two. But why is this so inevitable? Why should a young woman who is being well paid, or fairly well paid, for work which she likes to do deliberately reduce herself to the ranks of the board-and-wage workers because she happens to fall in love and marry?

It is utter nonsense to say that the management of a flat or even a small house is an enterprise which uses up all the time or strength of a normally sound and capable bride. Not in the age of the vacuum cleaner and the fireless cooker! She is sure to have some hours which she may well devote to work outside the home. And if her particular job demands so much of her working day that it is necessary for her to employ a servant—well, just as a matter of arithmetic and economies, isn't it wiser to earn, say, $25 a week and pay a maid $25 a month than to be the unpaid servant of one's self and one's husband?

When there are babies the question is of course complicated, but many, many young American wives have no children, at least during the early part of their married life. The correspondent whose letter started this discussion admits that she is childless. It seems so obvious that the easiest way for the wife not a mother to fix the family accounts is for her to go out and earn some money to add to the credit side. And whatever the Victorian sentimentalist may say, no man worth marrying will be either affronted in his pride or turned into a slacker by such a procedure.

USED TO PLENTY, SHE MAKES $65 GO A LONG WAY.

"Dear Madam: I take pleasure in submitting the following schedule from my budget:

My husband makes on an average of $45 per month, and I have no other source of income.
